(Courtesy of The Journal.) PORTLAND, Ore., May 13 .- With the exception of a handful of hogs, the arrivals in the yards at North Portland today consisted entirely of mutton. Trade in the mutton market is now rather weak and depressed with buying on a very low scale. Shorn yearling wethers are generally quoted good enough at this time to force a quarter above this. The lower price is being quoted for wethers generally

General prices in the mutton trade are fully a quarter lower than last week. Today's run was quite fair in view of the rather liberal showing of yesterday. Killers wants are well taken care of at the moment and for that reason they are not inclined to stock up too heavily with additional
